 With your fleeces all cover'd with snow.

 O, mourn not at OLIVER's death!
 Unwept my last sand let it fall;
 Ye too must resign your sweet breath,
 For who his past years can recall?

^{6th}
 O, take all your SHEPHERD can give!
 Receive my last thanks, and last sigh;
 Whose simplicity taught me to live,
 And whose innocence teaches to die!

Long time in Anguish & Despair.

The Words by a Lady

Pedal

Long time in anguish and despair I mourn'd the loss of thee my fair, thy name I carv'd on ev'ry
Tree, and mark'd the promise made to me a Kifs, a Kifs, a Kifs, a Kifs from thee a kifs a kifs from thee. I mourn'd throughout each lonely day and wept the tedious hours a way but now my soul is full of glee and soon my blest reward shall be a kifs, a kifs, a kifs, a kifs from thee a kifs a kifs from thee.

Believe my fair I still adore,
And absence makes me love thee more,
I boast my chains nor wou'd be free,
While there remains in store for me
A kifs from thee.
But now I mean no more to part,
I bind thee to my faithfull heart,
And blest'd each happy hour shall be,
While every hour yields to me
A kifs from thee.

By all the Softness of the Hour.

A BALLAD

The Words by MISS LEE.

Andantino

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in 3/4 time, marked 'Andantino'. The key signature has two sharps (F# and C#). The introduction consists of two systems of piano accompaniment. The first system of lyrics is: 'By all the Softness of the hour, when first I own'd my Anna's pow'r, by ev'-ry'. The second system is: 'softer one in store oh deign sweet Maid to love me to love me to love'. The third system is: 'me oh deign sweet Maid to love me.' The piano accompaniment continues throughout the vocal lines, with a final flourish at the end.

By all the Softness of the hour, when first I own'd my Anna's pow'r, by ev'-ry softer one in store oh deign sweet Maid to love me to love me to love me oh deign sweet Maid to love me.

By all the lover ear-ly tries the silent

e-lo-quence of Eyes the tender e-ner-gy of sighs oh deign sweet Maid to love me to love me to love me oh deign sweet Maid sweet Maid to love me.

By hopes that live upon the Air,
 By Visions like my Anna fair,
 By all the horrors of despair,
 Oh deign sweet Maid to love me .
 By all the melting dear distress,
 Doubt blinds with shadowey happiness,
 By passion words can ne'er express,
 Oh deign sweet Maid to love me .

Yes Henry yes with thee I'll go ,
 Nor sigh for any pleasure past ,
 Whether with sultry heat I glow ,
 Or Shiver in the Northern blast ,
 Supported by thy friendly Arm ,
 Fatigue and toil were light to me ,
 My soul no dangers can alarm ,
 Blest thro' the world to follow thee .

And should the ill which most I dread
 Should pain or grief thy peace molest
 This arm should prop thy drooping head
 This voice should sooth thy cares to rest
 No muse untaught by fondest love
 Could like thy Nancy watchful be ,
 Whils't ev'ry tender care should prove
 How much my joys depend on thee .
